

CHICAGO PRESSE GRANTS 50-CENT RATE TO NEWSIES

The Chicago Presse came through with the demands of the newsboys' union yesterday and the strike on that paper was called off. No settlement has yet been made with the Abendpost.

Trouble started when the Presse raised its price to the newsboys to from 30 and 40-cents a hundred to 60 cents. As the paper to the public sells for a cent, newsboys complained that they made almost no profit from its sale.

After a conference with John Tomasetti, president of the union, publishers of the Presse agreed to sell to the boys for 50 cents a hundred and take returns.

"L" TRAINS CRASH—SERVICE ON RAVENSWOOD TIED UP

Two downtown-bound Ravenswood "L" trains crashed into each other early this morning, throwing passengers into a panic. Nobody has been reported hurt. A safety device on the cars prevented telescoping.

One of the trains of five cars was waiting for a Wilson "L" to cut in on the main track by the Belmont station when the other hit it.

MAYOR VS. CITY COUNCIL

Hostilities between Mayor Thompson and city council may break out with fresh fire soon. The mayor intimates he may veto the budget because 10 per cent is cut off the pay of the high city hall men who hold appointive offices. It is admitted the Chicago Federation of Labor protest was a factor in the reductions. The federation made a loud howl that high salaried workers should be cut before day laborers.

QUIZ GAMBLING SQUAD

Det. Sergt's John O. Johnson and Geo. O'Connor of the police chief's gambling squad, were called to the office of State's Atty Hoyne today and put through a severe grilling by Hoyne's aids. It is rumored that Hoyne has information of a city-wide gambling graft that existed under administration of ex-Chief Healey.
